

31st Annual Winter Environmental Conference

1000 Islands Harbor Hotel - Clayton, New York - Saturday, February 1, 2020

- 9:30 Registration, Coffee & Pastries
- 10:00 - 10:05 Welcome & Opening Remarks
Mayor Norma Zimmer, Village of Clayton
Jeff Garnsey, Save The River Board President
- 10:05 - 10:15 Status of Save The River
John Peach - Executive Director and Upper St. Lawrence Riverkeeper
- 10:15 - 10:55 Tools for Engaging Property Owners Towards Long-Term Shoreline Health
Barbara King - Executive Director, Watersheds Canada
- 10:55 - 11:40 Origins of a Crisis: The Arrival of Asian Carp in North America
Andrew Reeves - Environmental Author
- 11:40 - 11:55 Save The River's Educational Programs
Patricia Shulenburg - Program Manager, Save The River
- 11:55 - 12:55 Lunch
- 12:55 - 1:10 Friend of the River™ Award Ceremony
John Peach - Executive Director and Upper St. Lawrence Riverkeeper
- 1:10 - 2:00 Understanding Drivers of Great Lakes Water Level Variability
Dr. Andrew Gronewold - Associate Professor, University of Michigan, School for Environment and Sustainability
- 2:00 - 2:35 Are Loons on Thin Ice with Climate Change?
Dr. Nina Schoch - Executive Director, Adirondack Center for Loon Conservation
- 2:35 - 2:50 Break
- 2:50 - 3:25 A Climate Action Toolkit for Northern New York
Rob Hoehn - CEO, IdeaScale
- 3:25 - 3:55 St. Lawrence River Muskellunge: A Path to Population Revitalization
Dr. John Farrell - Professor of Aquatics & Fisheries Science, SUNY College of Environmental and Science Forestry
- 3:55 Closing Comments
- 4:00 Cocktail Reception Complimentary hors d'oeuvres and cash bar
-